

Masters by research candidates are asked to provide a thesis title upon commencement of their candidature. Candidates are permitted to change the title of their thesis throughout their candidature to more accurately describe their research project, but are not permitted to change their research topic once candidature has commenced.

It is recommended the thesis title reflect studio research for the Master of Fine Arts and the Master of Design eg Seeing, Observation and Analysis: A Studio Investigation.

Applications must be submitted to the Executive Officer, Committee of Graduate Studies at least 4 to 6 weeks before the candidature end date (expected submission date).
